

All Women Count!

All Women Count!, the state's breast and cervical cancer control program pays for mammograms, Pap smears, and other related exams for South Dakota women who meet age and income guidelines. All Women Count! serves women 40 – 46 year of age without insurance to pay for screening exams or women who have insurance but cannot pay the deductible or co-payment for exams.